

CAC Teen Board

2013-2014

CALLING ALL ARTISTS, CREATORS, and INNOVATORS!

Have you and your friends ever wanted take over an art center and make it your own?

Have you ever dreamed of publishing a magazine or curating an exhibition?

Well this is your chance with the Teen Board at the Contemporary Arts Center!

As a member of the CAC Teen Board you will meet on Saturdays with other high-school students from around the city to create the arts programming you want. You will have an insider look at how an arts center is run and have the power to make it your own.

In return you will meet and work with professional artists and curators, gain real life experience in marketing, budgeting, graphic design, and curation. The Teen Board can count for volunteer hours and is a great program to have on your resume for college.
